“NEITHER DO I CONDEMN YOU” JOHN 8:1-11

The fate of a woman caught in adultery is death by stoning. She is condemned, the man is excused. Jesus is asked what his thoughts are on this.

It is a trick question. If he says it is wrong then he speaks against the Law of Moses and the high priests who are trying to find a reason to arrest him, have their excuse. If he says it is ok then he is offending against Roman Law which in principle forbids stoning.

Jesus replies neither yes nor no but rather with admirable simplicity and audacity, he answers with truth, justice and compassion:

“He who is without sin, let him cast the first stone”.

Then with tenderness he says to the woman:
“I don’t condemn you either, “Go and sin no more”.

We in a world directed and inspired mainly by men, who can tend to ignore all the injustices that women continue to suffer everywhere.

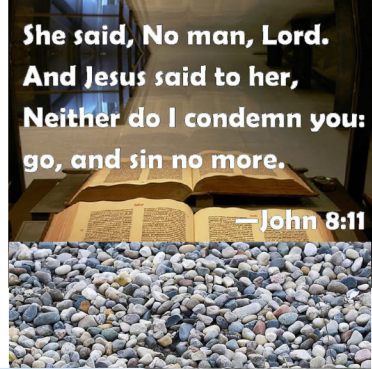

Misogyny is the name given to this reality found to a greater or lesser degree in all our cultures which encompasses a range of behaviors and attitudes, from subtle biases to overt hostility, that are directed towards women.

There is of course on the contrary Misandry a range of attitudes and behaviour against men , but not to the same extent.

In our world women are often unable to move freely without fear of men. Rape, abuse and humiliation are not something imaginary. On the contrary, they still constitute one of the most deep-rooted forms of violence today.

With out going overboard the suffering of women should always be to the forefront of concern.

But returning to the central theme of the Gospel. Jesus teaches a profound ' lesson in divine mercy and forgiveness. As sinners, we are all unworthy to judge the sins of others. Jesus, the one without sin, offers us who are sinners his mercy and forgiveness. And touched by Jesus’ compassion, we are sent to sin no more and to live in God’s love and peace.

Parish Priest.

ST ANNE'S JUBILEE BANNER
PILGRIMS OF HOPE
NGA KAWAI MAHA
WHIRIA NGA TANGATA
WEAVE THE PEOPLES TOGETHER

2025 is the Jubilee Holy Year, the 2,025th anniversary of the Birth of the Lord. The concept of "Jubilee" comes from the Book of Leviticus (chapter 25) as a special year of reconciliation, pilgrimage, and coming home. Pope Francis has designated the 2025 Holy Year as a time to renew ourselves as "Pilgrims of Hope."

Most Parishes have their plain banners with the Jubilee Insignia. Here in St Anne's we have created our own banner.

The name of the Wharenui behind the church is called "Nga Kawai Maha". It can mean many strands (to a rope) or Whakapapa (genealogy). This is all specific to Manurewa. In the precolonial and colonial times The tribes came down from the north, tribes came up from the south, tribes from the west coast came over as did the tribes from the east coast . All tribes had to pass through or meet in in Manurewa,

Many strands (tribes) were platted together hence to say that many strands make a strong rope Manurewa . Many many genealogies all connect together ."whiria nga tangata" "weave the peoples together".

Today it has a new application. Manurewa is home to so many ethnicities, not only Pasifikan but from all over the world. Hence the flags representing the many strands of the rope, the peoples that we are in St Anne's and all their genealogies . The flags in the banner are all the same size. Each ethnicity is equally important, is a strand of the same size to make our community strong, make us like a strong rope, join our many many whakapapa together. Nga kawai maha (many)

Our Synodal motto in St Anne's is to walk up the Mountain with Jesus together. We can do it when we do it together. We are "Pilgrims of Hope". Our mission is to "weave our peoples together" and like a strong rope walk up the mountain with Jesus together.

Remember, you can use any envelopes as long as your name or giving number is written on the front.
